Hi Everyone!

Sunday is when we kick off a new series from the book of Pippins. The series is entitled - "Hanging Tough Together ... and Loving It!" I hope you can join us Sunday as we start with a big picture overview of the book. This would be a great time to read through the book before we kick things off.

The following week we are encouraging the entire church family to do devos together. I am attaching a schedule and the devotional for you. We will have printed copies at church as well. So a week from Monday (Jan. 25th) is when the first week of devotions will start. I want to challenge you to dig in and let's grow together as we begin the new year!

... And Loving It!
